XIII. Old Business – None

XIV. New Business –

- a. Voting location changes: Received approval of County Legislative Delegation for Pelham Fire Station; Silverhill Methodist and Cherokee Springs Baptist
- b. Candidate residency requirements – SC Constitution sets these requirements as “qualified elector” and no local authority (i.e. town council ordinances) can supersede the Constitution. A Court must declare an ordinance invalid; however, SC Attorney General’s office opines that such a municipal ordinance would run afoul of the Constitution and state law.
