

A message from the Solicitor:

The 7th Circuit Solicitor's Office firmly believes people who commit crimes must be held accountable for their actions. We realize some crimes are committed by non-violent, first-time offenders who want to turn their lives around. Our intervention programs were created to meet this need.

Our programs demand strict adherence to challenging and rigorous requirements which may include community service work, drug and alcohol treatment, random drug screening, counseling, educational classes, prison tours, and restitution to victims.

In return for compliance with all of the program requirements, charges are dismissed and participants are eligible to have their record expunged. It is my hope and belief that the administration of our intervention programs makes a difference in the lives of hundreds of people in Spartanburg and Cherokee counties every year.

Regards,
Barry J. Barnette
